

The RRIS Tutoring Program offers support to students who can use extra help in their studies. If you are struggling, let us know. We will match you up with students who are willing to lend a hand.

The program offers:

- → Free tutoring for some courses and subject to tutors' availability.
- → Tutoring for a fee paid directly to the tutor. The set fee in this program is 90 NIS for most courses, and 100 NIS for Computer Science.
