

PREPARING FUTURE LEADERS

FOR TOMORROW'S CHALLENGES

BA in GOVERNMENT AT REICHMAN UNIVERSITY

Kelly Odes

International Media & Diplomatic Affairs Advisor, Israel Ministry of Diaspora Affairs South Africa

“The fascinating courses, myriad of networking opportunities, real-life practical tools, and extra-curricular activities differentiate this program from others, and set me up for a bright career in government and diplomacy.”

Ezra Friedman

Policy Adviser, British Embassy in Israel USA

“My BA in Government allowed me to explore my passions for a plethora of foreign policy issues, while providing world-class access to decision-makers and thought leaders. It played an integral role in who I am today.”

Agathe Sarfati

Senior Policy Analyst, International Peace Institute (IPI) in New York France

“The Government program has given me the opportunity to explore my passion for international security policy, and to delve into issues that have become my main areas of expertise.”

Noy Dagan

Advisor to the Director General, Prime Minister's Office Israel

“Aside from offering me a broad outlook on current affairs in Israel and abroad, the Government BA program allowed me to glimpse into cultures and perspectives of people different from my own. For me, this was the best added value I could have asked for. I had insightful, inspiring, and fun years at Reichman University, which influenced the person I am today.”

Ido Levy

Associate Fellow, The Washington Institute for Near East Policy USA

“The RRIS Government program has been an indispensable aspect of my career. Through the program, I gained deep knowledge of Middle East affairs, jihadist groups, and counterterrorism - which was pivotal to my becoming a researcher at The Washington Institute and writing a book about ISIS.”
