UDI RECANATI
Chancellor
Reichman University

At the beginning of the academic year, I am always amazed to see our freshman students, who hail from over 90 countries, enter the Raphael Recanati International School filled with promise and ambition. Three years later, I have the pleasure of hosting these students at our home, where I am equally amazed by the growth and maturity they exhibit, their knowledge of Israel and its history, and their understanding of the miracle of the Zionist dream. These young men and women are the future leadership of Israel, and of the diaspora, endowed with the tools and knowledge to excel wherever life takes them.

I feel very fortunate to be part of this outstanding academic institution, which fills me with pride and hope for the future of Israel and the continuity of the Jewish people.

RAPHAEL RECANATI

Raphael Recanati, after whom Reichman University's Raphael Recanati International School is named, was the founder and chairman of the Overseas Shipholding Group and chairman of the Israel Discount Bank from 1982 to 1986. He and his brothers, Danny and Jacques, founded the IDB Group and continued to develop it until his passing in 1999.

All three of them were instrumental in developing industry, transportation, high-tech, and the financial sector in Israel, with the goal of growing businesses that were in the interest of the struggling new nation headed by David Ben-Gurion and Minister of Finance Pinchas Sapir. Born in Salonika (now Thessaloniki), Greece, Raphael Recanati immigrated to Israel with his family in 1935 and later joined the Palmach and the Haganah. He served as an emissary in Egypt during Aliyah Bet (clandestine immigration). Throughout his lifetime, Raphael Recanati proved a steadfast philanthropist in the areas of medicine, education, and culture. This included contributing substantially to the development of Rabin Medical Center, Tel Aviv University School of Business, Ben-Gurion University School of Nursing, and other institutions in Israel. In the United States, known beneficiaries of his generosity include the Beth Israel Medical Center, the Recanati/Miller Transplantation Institute at Mount Sinai Hospital, and the UJA Federation of New York, among many others. Raphael Recanati was survived by his wife Dina z"l (born Hettena) and two sons, Michael, who passed away in 2015, and Oudi.

PEER COUNSELORS

Some of Reichman University's distinguishing characteristics include the personal attention afforded to students and the family atmosphere on campus. As part of this, first-year students are assigned a peer counselor, a second- or third-year Israeli student, who is tasked with helping them acculturate to Reichman University and Israel. The role of the peer counselors is to provide a "soft landing" and accompany the new students throughout their first year of studies. Besides offering academic guidance and personal and social support to the students, the peer counselors assist them with their absorption in Israel and help bridge the multi-cultural gaps.

ORIENTATION WEEK

One of Reichman University's most innovative and important services is a week-long orientation for first-year students. It includes various social activities, informational sessions regarding administration, the use of campus facilities, and a full-day excursion that is pure fun!

Participation in Orientation Week is mandatory for all first-year students.

REICHMAN UNIVERSITY MILAB

The Reichman University Media Innovation Lab (milab) of the Sammy Ofer School of Communications is an academic research and prototyping lab that explores the future of media, technology, and human-computer interaction. We work in interdisciplinary project teams that include experts in interactive media, computer science, design, and psychology. This enables our students to deal with complex challenges from different angles and perspectives. We focus on the relationship between digital technology and physical interaction, and are committed to keeping the human experience at the core of our innovation process.

At milab, we work closely with strategic industry sponsors and international research centers in the human-centered computing and media technology domains. Throughout the year, we conduct several joint projects with leading research laboratories around the world, among them the Media Lab at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT).

Milab also runs a unique MA degree in Human-Computer Interaction (HCI), the first of its kind in Israel.

THE ZELL ENTREPRENEURSHIP PROGRAM

The Zell Entrepreneurship Program is a venture creation program for outstanding individuals from all Reichman University schools with the ambition and ability to launch an entrepreneurial venture. The program combines multidisciplinary approaches and embodies a “learning by doing” ethos, enabling its participants to learn and develop skills as they work on creating their own startups. Admission criteria include demonstrated leadership ability, high academic standing, and experience in and familiarity with business or social entrepreneurship.

Over the course of an academic year, students acquire practical tools and theoretical knowledge, then work toward establishing their ventures—examining potential ideas, analyzing the business environment, validating product-market fit, building business models, and launching their startups. Each team is assigned industry expert mentors and has access to a board of faculty and business advisors. The culmination of the year-long program is a study trip abroad, which includes company visits, in-depth seminars, and meetings with investors.

Over the years, alumni of the Zell Entrepreneurship Program have established more than 170 companies that employ thousands of workers in Israel and abroad. Several have made significant exits. Many Zell alumni work in key management positions throughout the global ecosystem, harnessing the skills, experience, and entrepreneurial mindset they gained during this intensive year.

The Argov Fellows Program

THE ARGOV FELLOWS PROGRAM IN LEADERSHIP AND DIPLOMACY

Building on the legacy of former Israeli Ambassador Shlomo Argov ז"ל, the Argov Fellows Program acts as a leadership accelerator to prepare exceptional students from all Reichman University schools for future leadership positions in a wide range of fields, both in Israel and overseas. The program accepts around 20 students from all Reichman University degree programs in their final year of studies. (It is also possible to participate in the program the year after completing a Bachelor's degree.)

Through a challenging interdisciplinary curriculum, the Argov Program strives to give students the knowledge, tools, and skills necessary to meet the many challenges that Israel faces in today's complex global environment. Conducted entirely in English, it combines academic training, practical skills workshops, and extensive experiential learning. The program's unique curriculum includes courses, seminars, and workshops by leading academic and professional experts from Israel and around the world, taught exclusively to Argov Fellows.

Students also participate in study tours to Europe, the United States, Taiwan, and throughout Israel. The fellowship year concludes with a public presentation of capstone group policy projects, in which the fellows propose their solutions to major policy challenges facing Israel and the Jewish people.

Upon graduation, fellows become members of the Argov Alumni Association. To date, there are close to 400 Argov alumni. Many of the program's graduates have continued on to prestigious fellowship programs (such as Rhodes and Chevening), graduate programs at leading universities around the world and key positions in the public, private, and nonprofit sectors worldwide.

PUBLIC DIPLOMACY PROGRAM

The Public Diplomacy Program offers students a comprehensive, dynamic education in effective, innovative, and proactive professional tools for public diplomacy in the 21st century. With a strong emphasis on both practical and theoretical aspects, the program inspires academic excellence, creative and critical thinking, and a Zionist-driven approach.

Under the leadership of Prof. Moran Yarchi, it integrates content from government, communication, and marketing courses to give students an in-depth understanding of the interdisciplinary diplomatic landscape and equip them with the skills to navigate the challenges of today's Information Age.

Each year, the program welcomes some 20 honors students (both Israeli and international). In addition to extensive academic knowledge, the program offers various workshops that introduce students to practical tools for content creation, message promotion, and shaping public opinion in the digital age. A unique internship opportunity at ACT.IL allows students to apply these tools in a real-world setting. ACT.IL harnesses the power of communities to respond to anti-Semitism and anti-Israel expressions on social media, teaching students systematic crowdsource methods and effective online activism.

The Public Diplomacy Program works in collaboration with the Abba Eban Institute for International Diplomacy at Reichman University, led by Amb. Mark Regev. This collaboration provides students with invaluable exposure to experts from the fields of business, media, civil society, and government, who not only share their know-how during hands-on workshops, but also create incredible networking opportunities for the students.

Taught entirely in English, the year-long Public Diplomacy Program ensures students receive a comprehensive and immersive educational experience.

VISA & STATUS ASSISTANCE

Students are responsible for clarifying and establishing their status in Israel, and are welcome to turn to the Raphael Recanati International School staff for advice and assistance. Before commencing studies, all students must clarify their status and eligibility for a student visa (A-2) or Israeli citizenship with the Israeli embassy or consulate in their country of origin.

A student visa should be obtained in advance, in the student's country of origin. International students who are children of an Israeli parent must settle all matters, such as whether they must obtain an Israeli passport and deferment of military service, with the nearest Israeli embassy or consulate.

For students considering making Aliyah (immigrating to Israel): <https://www.jewishagency.org/aliyah/>, or from North America www.nbn.org.il

HEALTH INSURANCE

All Reichman University students are required to have comprehensive health insurance coverage throughout the entire period of their studies. Israeli residents, including new immigrants, receive national health insurance for a low monthly fee in accordance with the country's health insurance legislation. International students who are not covered by Israel's national health insurance (Bituach Leumi) should purchase their own health insurance policy to cover their medical needs while in Israel or purchase the UMS HAREL YEDIDIM insurance policy for international students, offered by Reichman University.

Our special arrangement with HAREL YEDIDIM insurance company provides comprehensive health coverage for $1,600 USD* per academic year, which will be charged at the beginning of each year.

In order to have continuous coverage, the policy is automatically renewed from one academic year to the next until the scheduled end of the program unless a student notifies the school in writing that they wish to cancel.

**Rates are subject to change according to insurance company rate fluctuations.*

ENVISIONING THE FUTURE

INNOVATION CENTER

The world's accelerated revolution in the fields of science and technology requires up-to-date and innovative academic frameworks that train students to face the changing reality. As part of the new multifaceted approach, an interdisciplinary technological and scientific research center has been established at our university's core, bringing together researchers and experts from various fields of knowledge under one roof and serving as fertile ground for unique creativity.

The joint work of researchers at the Innovation Center, led by Prof. Noam Lemelstrich-Latar, answers the need to reshape the social sciences, encouraging entrepreneurship and innovation among students to respond to existing or future needs in society and industry. As part of the Innovation Center, students work on applied projects with those specializing in other fields and with industry partners. The Innovation Center led Reichman University to embark on research in life sciences with the establishment of the Scojen Institute for Synthetic Biology, led by Prof. Yosi Shachar Diamand, to become a part of the new Dina Recanati Medical School.

RUNI TOOLS

This innovative extracurricular program aims to impart career skills as part of the new world of work. It offers a variety of courses aimed at expanding students' toolboxes and preparing them for the changing employment market. As part of the program, students gain practical information that will give them a competitive advantage and acquire skills such as time and project management, preparing business presentations, becoming familiar with the financial world, digital marketing and the world of artificial intelligence, and more. The program directly connects students with leading companies in the Israeli economy and culminates with students receiving a certificate for participating in the program. As part of the program, the university grants students a total subsidy for a course each academic year.

GOOGLE AND REICHMAN TECH SCHOOL

Google and Reichman University have partnered to create a leading, high-tech, professional training school. Their shared vision is to empower all Israelis, especially those from underrepresented groups, with the skills and knowledge to succeed in the tech industry. Unlike traditional bootcamps, courses are academically supervised, offer academic credit options for formal degrees, and provide career support to ensure graduates seamlessly integrate into the workforce. Admission is based purely on ability, making this opportunity accessible to everyone.

DINA RECANATI SCHOOL OF MEDICINE (under construction)

The growing shortage of doctors poses a real danger to the medical field in Israel. The State of Israel needs 2,000 new doctors every year, but it trains only 40% of them. The rest are forced to study abroad, some in medical schools with very low standards. The current reality, in which the State of Israel sends some of its best citizens – graduates of military service, people who volunteered with Magen David Adom for many years – to study abroad on their own dime, creates a moral issue.

Due to an understanding of this predicament and the need to train all of the doctors required by the Israeli healthcare system, Reichman University decided to open a new medical school and joined forces with Israel's top medical institutions: Rabin Medical Center, Clalit Health Services, Maccabi Healthcare Services, and Sheba Medical Center at Tel Hashomer.

With the generous support of the Recanati family, we are establishing the Dina Recanati School of Medicine, whose purpose is to educate the doctors of tomorrow. The school will serve as a global model for educating future physicians in a manner that is professional, innovative, multidisciplinary and personal. This will be done through new methods in medical education such as simulations, virtual reality and 3D printing. One of these innovative methods is a first-of-its-kind learning model, where students will learn in groups of 10 with a designated experienced doctor and class. Practical training in clinical fields, excellence in interdisciplinary research and attention to medicine-based technologies such as AI and big data will also add to this global model.

**Subject to the approval of the Council for Higher Education*

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

The BA program in Business Administration consists of approximately 120 credits and is designed to be completed over a period of three years (six semesters). The program gives students the flexibility to tailor their studies so that they can delve into their own specific areas of interest. The program consists of core courses (approximately 60 credits) that cover the basics of business administration, and electives (approximately 60 credits) that are organized in knowledge clusters: Brand Management; Corporate Finance; Customer Management; Data Science; Entrepreneurship & Business Development; Financial Markets; Fintech; Marketing Strategy; and Product Management. Students select knowledge clusters based on their specific interests and depending on their choice of knowledge clusters, they can specialize in Digital Innovation, Finance, or Marketing.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION SPECIALIZATIONS:

SPECIALIZATION IN MARKETING

Dr. Talia Rymon, Head

This specialization provides students with extensive knowledge of modern and data-driven marketing in the technological era. The courses are designed to provide theoretical as well as practical knowledge, and to enable hands-on experience and practical tools through workshops, real-world projects, case study analyses, company visits, and guest lectures by leading marketing and business managers. During the last year of their studies, students work on a year-long practical marketing project and prepare a comprehensive marketing plan for leading firms, startups, and organizations.

The specialization prepares students to succeed in leading positions in a myriad of industries, including: marketing managers, digital managers, marcomm managers, product marketing managers, and brand managers. Students also gain the knowledge and skills to work in companies that provide various marketing services including advertising, public relations, digital marketing, marketing consultancy, and marketing research.

SPECIALIZATION IN DIGITAL INNOVATION

Dr. Moses Miller, Head

As the information revolution continues, and the world relies more on technology and becomes more digital, global organizations recognize the importance of adapting their operations to this digital era to cope with the challenges and take advantage of the opportunities that it brings with it.

Students gain a competitive advantage via an understanding of data collection, artificial intelligence-based analysis of the data, and the development of digital products that interact with customers and improve the user experience. Graduates will have the necessary experience to go into management positions in high-tech companies.

SPECIALIZATION IN FINANCE

Prof. Yaniv Grinstein, Head

The growing globalization of markets and stock exchanges, as well as the multitude of new and sophisticated financial tools, have compelled companies to use high-level financial tools and approaches. Today's companies cannot survive in the competitive market without using the most advanced tools to price assets, raise capital, select projects for investment, manage risk, and undertake mergers and acquisitions.

This specialization prepares students to succeed in lucrative positions at financial institutions, banks, and insurance companies, as well as in the financial departments of corporations and consulting firms. It provides the right balance between theoretical foundations and practical courses, and teaches students how to obtain and manage sources of capital. In addition, it introduces students to advanced technological innovations in the field of finance, such as cryptocurrency and blockchain technology.

DOUBLE MAJOR IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION AND ECONOMICS

In the competitive marketplace, interdisciplinary knowledge provides our graduates with a significant advantage in various professional and academic fields. Business executives must be equipped with a solid understanding of the factors that shape the local and global economy, and economists must possess both theoretical and practical tools. A multidimensional understanding of the global economy and financial marketplace provides students with the quantitative and analytical skills required to succeed in both the private and public sectors.

Our courses in economics develop analytical thinking, which is crucial when working in a complex environment. Understanding how markets work, how prices are determined under different market structures, and how regulation affects businesses and individuals allows you to make better decisions once you are in a leading role in the business world or in the public sector. Studying methods of data analysis opens doors to exciting positions that require advanced analytical abilities. The Business Administration courses provide tools that are essential in order to operate in the business world: finance and marketing; digital communication; business law; business strategy; and leadership.

Our three-year program provides students with a broad view of the fundamentals with which they must be familiar in order to understand the problems and methods of coping with the economic and administrative challenges facing economists and business executives. The curriculum combines knowledge, tools, theory, and practice to train students for management positions in an ever-changing reality.

INTERNSHIPS

Our students are offered internships in various fields, such as the startup scene, the financial industry, and government.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

Academic Field Tours

Our program includes field studies to central organizations in the Israeli economy, such as the Knesset, the Bank of Israel, commercial banks, and companies such as Google. These tours give our students a glimpse into how economics works in practice, as well as invaluable exposure to the Israeli economy and the labor market.

Policy Seminar

In our unique seminar, students hear lectures on current economic policy issues from top policymakers and academics from Israel and abroad. At the end of the seminar, students write a professional policy paper and produce academic posters that are presented during a special celebration.

The double major BA degree in Business Administration and Economics consists of approximately 120 academic credits and is designed to be completed over a period of three years (six semesters). First-year students are required to complete a preparatory course in mathematics before they begin their studies. Students who did not attend high school taught in English may be required to take courses in English language proficiency.

TIOMKIN SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS

EDUCATION FOR ECONOMIC LEADERSHIP
STARTS HERE

PROF. ITZHAK GILBOA
DEAN

At the Tiomkin School of Economics, students delve into the consumer and business decision-making processes across diverse market setups. Our courses explore the various roles economic policy plays in the real world and study how it is implemented. The double major degree in Business Administration and Economics provides students with a deep understanding of the major issues facing corporations today. The new double major in Economics and Entrepreneurship with Data Science focuses on the economics of global markets and multinational firms while simultaneously teaching students how to analyze business data using data science tools.

Upon completion of their studies, our graduates are equipped with the knowledge required to pursue advanced degrees in Economics and related disciplines, as well as to work for corporations, financial firms, startup companies, and government agencies. We ensure that our curriculum remains relevant by regularly updating our courses to reflect advances in economic knowledge and meet the ever-evolving needs of employers."

JUDY AND AVI TIOMKIN

Judy and Avi Tiomkin are Israeli philanthropists who have worked to advance Israeli society and the Israeli economy for many years. Avi Tiomkin holds an LLB in Law and is a financial analyst and international hedge fund adviser. Judy Tiomkin holds a BA in Art History, and worked as a home interior designer. The couple, who divide their time between the United States and Israel, first met when both were students at Tel Aviv University, and married in 1975. Since 2015, the Tiomkin School of Economics at Reichman University has borne their name.

DOUBLE MAJOR IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION AND ECONOMICS

In the competitive marketplace, interdisciplinary knowledge provides our graduates with a significant advantage in various professional and academic fields. Business executives must be equipped with a solid understanding of the factors that shape the local and global economy, and economists must possess both theoretical and practical tools. A multidimensional understanding of the global economy and financial marketplace provides students with the quantitative and analytical skills required to succeed in both the private and public sectors.

Our courses in economics develop analytical thinking, which is crucial when working in a complex environment. Understanding how markets work, how prices are determined under different market structures, and how regulation affects businesses and individuals allows you to make better decisions once you are in a leading role in the business world or public sector. Studying methods of data analysis opens doors to exciting positions that require advanced analytical abilities. The Business Administration courses provide tools that are essential in order to operate in the business world: finance and marketing; digital communication; business law; business strategy; and leadership.

Our three-year program provides students with a broad view of the fundamentals with which they must be familiar in order to understand the problems and methods of coping with the economic and administrative challenges facing economists and business executives. The curriculum combines knowledge, tools, theory, and practice to train students for management positions in an ever-changing reality.

INTERNSHIPS

Our students are offered internships in various fields, such as the startup scene, the financial industry, and the government.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES

Academic Field Tours

Our program includes field studies to central organizations in the Israeli economy, such as the Knesset, the Bank of Israel, commercial banks, and companies such as Google. These tours give our students a glimpse into how economics works in practice, as well as invaluable exposure to the Israeli economy and the labor market.

Policy Seminar

In our unique seminar, students hear lectures on current economic policy issues from top policymakers and academics from Israel and abroad. At the end of the seminar, students write a professional policy paper and produce academic posters that are presented during a special celebration.

The double major BA degree in Business Administration and Economics consists of approximately 120 academic credits and is designed to be completed over a period of three years (six semesters). First-year students are required to complete a preparatory course in mathematics before they begin their studies. Students who did not attend high school taught in English may be required to take courses in English language proficiency.

DOUBLE MAJOR IN ECONOMICS AND ENTREPRENEURSHIP WITH DATA SCIENCE

Entrepreneurs who are also economists have an outstanding advantage: They are equipped with a deep understanding of both the industry to which they wish to contribute and the macroeconomic changes that will affect their business. The combination of economics and entrepreneurship allows our students unique flexibility in their career choices. Graduates can be entrepreneurs or independent business owners, consultants or employees at corporations. They can work in the private sector (mainly in high-tech and fintech) or the public sector.

The entrepreneur, who is also an economist, must be ready for the data revolution. This program prepares students by equipping them with technological tools, with a special focus on data analysis.

Students in this program learn entrepreneurship, economics, and data analysis. Many of the courses involve practical work, team projects, and presentations. Extracurricular activities include meetings with leading figures in industry, tours, and hackathons.

In their third year, students take on practical projects that involve collaboration with industry.

The double major in Economics and Entrepreneurship with Data Science consists of 122 credits and is designed to be completed in a period of three years (six semesters). First-year students are required to complete a preparatory course in mathematics before they begin their studies. Students who did not attend a high school taught in English may be required to take courses in English language proficiency.

MA IN FINANCIAL ECONOMICS

ACCELERATED PROGRAM TWO DEGREES IN FOUR YEARS

The MA in Financial Economics is designed to provide students with in-depth knowledge in finance and economics, a solid understanding of financial markets, and analytical tools that enable them to excel in the dynamic global business environment. The curriculum includes micro and macroeconomics foundations, financial theory, investments, and data analytics, as well as advanced elective courses in corporate finance, monetary policy, capital markets, and asset pricing.

It also includes a new and expanding fintech specialization focusing on Data Science applications in the financial space. The program trains students for diverse positions in financial markets. Graduates have gone on to work as financial analysts at investment firms, VCs, or private equity firms; as data analysts at fintech companies; economic and strategic consultants, as well as senior economists and researchers for regulatory bodies. Our alumni work in the private and public sectors, and are employed by Citi, Bloomberg, Pagaya, Deloitte, and the Bank of Israel, among many others. Some have continued on to PhD programs at top American and European universities.

Exceptional Business & Economics students may be accepted into the accelerated track, which enables them to complete their BA in Business & Economics and the MA in Financial Economics in four years. Students can apply to this program in the second year of their BA studies.

PRACTICAL KNOWLEDGE

PROF. YACOV HEL-OR
DEAN

With the emergence of artificial intelligence, big data processing, cybersecurity, and computational biology - studying computer science has never been more exciting. We are eager to educate curious and enthusiastic students, and provide them with the best and most relevant courses with our top-notch professors. We provide a rich and versatile program that enables all students to specialize in their fields of interest."

EFI ARAZI
(1937-2013)

Efi Arazi, for whom the Reichman University School of Computer Science is named, was one of the forefathers of the Israeli high-tech industry. In 1965, while studying at MIT, Arazi designed a camera for NASA, which was used by the Apollo 11 space mission to transmit the first images from the moon. At the age of 25, he invented a revolutionary auto-focus mechanism, thus cementing his position as one of the leading figures in the global electro-optic industry. Upon returning to Israel in 1968, Arazi founded the Scitex Corporation, which developed the first digital prepress computer and CCD scanner in the world. These developments made Scitex the world's leader in digital printing, with sales of over $10 billion. In 1990, at the age of 54, Arazi founded EFI (Electronics for Imaging, Inc.), which invented unique software and controllers that can transform any copier into a quality color printer, to instant industry success. Over the years, Arazi also chaired several startup companies, focused on fields ranging from digital video imaging to monitoring to managing business processes. The Efi Arazi School of Computer Science was established in 1996 and named in his honor in 2002. We are proud that Efi Arazi has chosen to give his name to Reichman University's School of Computer Science.

DOUBLE MAJOR IN SUSTAINABILITY AND GOVERNMENT

The 21st century has already seen major changes caused by the interaction between human societies and the natural world. Humanity occupies but a fraction of the planet's surface, yet it has altered its atmosphere, oceans, and the climate system, and severely harmed the biodiversity of living species. Resource depletion, greenhouse gas emissions, plastic pollution, and toxic waste are but a few examples of man's adverse impact on our planet. In recent years, it has become clear that the transition to sustainability is the only viable option for survival on planet Earth.

The role of institutions—national and supranational, governmental, and non-governmental—in enabling this transition to sustainability cannot be understated. Institutions and the decision-makers governing them determine the sort of resources to allocate to meet different ends.

The Sustainability & Government program at Reichman University, the first-ever program of its kind in Israel, equips students with a deep understanding of these issues and provides them with the skills needed to analyze options and alternatives, shape strategies and policies, and advocate in this field.

Our students learn about energy systems and renewables, water systems and water resources management, and food security and food-tech challenges in the era of climate change, rapid technological advancements in the field of sustainability and climate tech, green entrepreneurship, and domestic and international environmental regulation and governance—all of which are crucial to pursuing meaningful vocations in this domain.

The School of Sustainability further offers unique courses, classes, and seminars in the areas of generative Artificial Intelligence (GenAI), technology, big data and sustainability, information systems, and sustainable production and industrial ecology.

The Sustainability & Government Program provides graduates with a competitive advantage in a broad range of fields in the public and private sectors, which show increased demand for expertise in sustainability and in fields such as climate-tech, agritech, foodtech, energytech, watertech, environmental diplomacy, smart and sustainable cities and transportation planning, corporate social responsibility, and ESG.

Graduates will have the skills necessary to work in the private and public sectors, in Israel and abroad, and be well-suited for employment in multinational companies, international NGOs, and at cleantech startup companies.

The Sustainability & Government double major BA program consists of 120 credits. It is designed to be completed over a period of three years (six semesters). In their senior year, students conduct and lead a capstone project (practicum) on a sustainability topic of their choice. This is a chance to showcase entrepreneurial skills and spirits.

Several student teams have spun off their capstone projects into real-life ventures, raising substantial investments and generating income.

The program places a strong emphasis on practical experience through internships and the practicum, enabling graduates to get jobs at entrepreneurial startups in the areas of sustainability and cleantech, or to become sustainability experts in the private sector. The curriculum includes sustainability courses taught in collaboration with leading figures from Israeli academia, and its government and business sectors.

CAPSTONE PROJECT

In their final year of study, students are required to choose a topic from the wide domain of sustainability as their capstone project. Throughout this project, students work together in small teams and face real-life issues in accordance with their personal interests and passions.

The goal of the project is to offer students practical experience in the field of sustainability, with an emphasis on entrepreneurship and contributing to society. Projects run in small groups with the assistance of the team tutor(s) and mentors. Together, they outline a plan of action for the project's implementation and carry it out.

Guidance and mentorship are offered to students by the program's faculty and by Reichman University lecturers whose fields of expertise are relevant to the project (i.e., government, communications, business administration) and with the guidance of practitioners from relevant fields of practice.

HONORS PROGRAM

The Honors Program is designed for outstanding students who plan to continue studying towards advanced degrees in Israel or abroad. The program spans the second and third years of studies.

The Aviram Sustainability and Climate Program offers a year-long, state-of-the-art curriculum designed for 20 exceptional undergraduate students in their last year of studies from across all schools on campus. The Program addresses the pervasive and most consequential challenges of our time: keeping humanity within the Planetary Boundaries and making the just transition to a zero-carbon future.

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Internship opportunities for second- and third-year undergraduate students in the Lauder School of Government, Diplomacy & Strategy are available at various government and non-governmental organizations, as well as at numerous research institutes and think tanks (including research centers at the Lauder School).

The internships approved by the Lauder School are for academic credit (as an elective) and provide students with a unique opportunity to obtain invaluable practical experience. We encourage students to take advantage of the diverse internship options, which, in many cases, open doors to their careers.

THE INSTITUTE FOR POLICY AND STRATEGY (IPS)

The Institute for Policy and Strategy (IPS) at Reichman University, the convener of the Annual Herzliya Conference Series, aspires to contribute to Israel's national security and resilience by conducting integrative and comprehensive policy analysis on the national challenges, producing strategic insights and policy recommendations for decision-makers, and informing the public and policy discourse.

Main Pillars

The Institute's policy agenda focuses on two main issues: The first and primary is the identification of opportunities and risks for Israel in the Middle East arena and in a global setting. Special emphasis is placed on identifying dynamic regional shifts that enhance the threat posed by Iran, alongside developing new strategic relationships between Israel and the Arab states.

The second is Israel's national resilience as a foundation for national security. This pillar highlights the fact that domestic weakness negatively reflects on Israel's ability to cope with both internal and external crises.

IPS Publications & Conferences

- Weekly collection of policy papers
- Conferences based on meticulous content management and production for optimal experiences for local and overseas participants. (All conferences include a summary of key insights and recommendations for distribution to the IPS community, media, and decision-makers in Israel and worldwide.)
- Briefings and interviews across various media outlets. (Special emphasis is placed on IPS's international profile by translating written publications, as well as recordings, and distributing them across foreign media outlets.)

Herzliya Conference

The annual Herzliya Conference on the balance of Israel's national security is IPS's flagship activity. The conference draws international and Israeli participants from the highest levels of government, business, and academia to address pressing national, regional, and global issues.

SCHOOL OF SUSTAINABILITY

FOUNDED BY ISRAEL CORP., ICL & ORL

LEADING THE TRANSITION TO A ZERO-CARBON, ENVIRONMENTALLY SUSTAINABLE WORLD

DR. ASAF TZACHOR
ACTING DEAN

Humanity is at a crossroads. On the one hand, we revel in unparalleled technological advancement. On the other hand, we confront the pressing challenges of climate change, extreme weather, food security, water scarcity, energy crises, the degradation of ecological systems and habitats, and the ever-looming specter of natural disasters. These threats not only jeopardize our societies but also undermine the hard-earned progress we have achieved. In the coming years, we anticipate shifts in ecosystems and our environment, both globally and within the Middle East and Israel.

These transformations will test the resilience of states, societies, and institutions. At the same time, these transitions present us with a historic opportunity for creativity, innovation, and a real chance to reimagine and reshape our world. The School of Sustainability is unwaveringly dedicated to making a positive impact on the world. Our double-major Sustainability and Government program offers a unique curriculum to equip students with state-of-the-art academic knowledge and a wide range of applied, hands-on skills needed to understand and lead the transition to a zero-carbon, environmentally sustainable world.

DOUBLE MAJOR IN SUSTAINABILITY AND GOVERNMENT

The 21st century has already seen major changes caused by the interaction between human societies and the natural world. Humanity occupies but a fraction of the planet's surface, yet it has altered its atmosphere, oceans, and the climate system, and severely harmed the biodiversity of living species. Resource depletion, greenhouse gas emissions, plastic pollution, and toxic waste are but a few examples of man's adverse impact on our planet. In recent years, it has become clear that the transition to sustainability is the only viable option for survival on planet Earth.

The role of institutions—national and supranational, governmental, and non-governmental—in enabling this transition to sustainability cannot be understated. Institutions and the decision-makers governing them determine the sort of resources to allocate to meet different ends.

The Sustainability & Government program at Reichman University, the first-ever program of its kind in Israel, equips students with a deep understanding of these issues and provides them with the skills needed to analyze options and alternatives, shape strategies and policies, and advocate in this field.

Our students learn about energy systems and renewables, water systems and water resources management, and food security and foodtech challenges in the era of climate change, rapid technological advancements in the field of sustainability and climate tech, green entrepreneurship, and domestic and international environmental regulation and governance—all of which are crucial for pursuing meaningful vocations in this domain.

The School of Sustainability further offers unique courses, classes and seminars in the areas of generative Artificial Intelligence (genAI), technology, big data and sustainability, information systems, and sustainable production and industrial ecology.

The Sustainability & Government Program provides graduates with a competitive advantage in a broad range of fields in the public and private sectors, which show increased demand for expertise in sustainability and in fields such as climatech, agritech, foodtech, energytech, watertech, environmental diplomacy, smart and sustainable cities and transportation planning, corporate social responsibility, and ESG.

Graduates will have the skills necessary to work in the private and public sectors, in Israel and abroad, and be well-suited for employment in multinational companies, international NGOs, and at cleantech startup companies.

The Sustainability & Government double major BA program consists of 120 credits. The program is designed to be completed over a period of three years (six semesters). In their senior year, students conduct and lead a Capstone Project (practicum) on a sustainability topic of their choice. This is a chance to showcase entrepreneurial skills and spirits. Several student teams in the past have spun off their Capstone Projects into real-life ventures, raising substantial investments, and generating income.

The program places a strong emphasis on practical experience through internships and the practicum, enabling graduates to get jobs at entrepreneurial startups in the areas of sustainability and cleantech, or to become sustainability experts in the private sector. The curriculum includes sustainability courses taught in collaboration with leading figures from Israeli academia, and its government and business sectors.

CAPSTONE PROJECT

In their final year of study, students are required to choose a topic from the wide domain of sustainability as their Capstone Project. Throughout this project, students work together in small teams and face real-life issues in accordance with their personal interests and passions.

The goal of the project is to offer students practical experience in the field of sustainability, with an emphasis on entrepreneurship and contributing to society. Projects run in small groups with the assistance of the team tutor(s) and mentors. Together, they outline a plan of action for the project's implementation and carry it out.

Guidance and mentorship are offered to students by the program's faculty and by Reichman University lecturers whose fields of expertise are relevant to the project (i.e., government, communications, business administration), and with the guidance of practitioners from relevant fields of practice.

HONORS PROGRAM

The Honors Program is designed for outstanding students who plan to continue studying towards advanced degrees in Israel or abroad. The program spans the second and third years of studies.

The Aviram Sustainability and Climate Program offers a year-long, state-of-the-art curriculum designed for 20 exceptional undergraduate students in their last year of studies from across all schools on campus. The Program addresses the pervasive and most consequential challenges of our time: keeping humanity within the Planetary Boundaries and making the just transition to a zero-carbon future.

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Internship opportunities for 2nd and 3rd year undergraduate students in the Lauder School of Government, Diplomacy & Strategy are available at various government and non-governmental organizations, as well as at numerous research institutes and think tanks (including research centers at the Lauder School).

The internships approved by the Lauder School are for academic credit (as an elective) and provide students with a unique opportunity to obtain invaluable practical experience. We encourage students to take advantage of the diverse internship options, which, in many cases, open doors to their careers.

APPLICATION AND ADMISSIONS

1. Application Form and Fees

Please apply through our online application form. There is a non-refundable application fee of $100 USD.

2. High School Grades

Applicants must submit official copies of their high school transcripts and diplomas. Applicants in their final year of high school may submit partial transcripts. Acceptance of these applicants is contingent upon receipt of final transcripts that show they graduated and that their final grades are similar to those earned in previous semesters. Applicants who have completed at least 30 credits at university or community college may submit those transcripts in lieu of high school transcripts and a standardized test.

Applicants applying to quantitative degree programs will still be required to submit their high school transcripts, even if they have completed 30 or more university/college credits.

3. Recommendations

Applicants must submit two letters of recommendation from individuals who can assess their strengths, capabilities, and academic abilities. Evaluators can be teachers, educators, counselors, employers, or army supervisors (or any supervisors). The recommendation letters can be in either English or Hebrew and must be submitted directly by the recommender to the appropriate admissions officer or to rris.registrar@runi.ac.il. Emails with the recommendation letters should include the name of the applicant and program to which they are applying.

4. Essay

Applicants are required to submit a 250-500 word essay in English explaining why they would like to study in Israel at Reichman University, and why they chose the particular academic program for which they are applying. The essay should be uploaded to the online registration form.

5. Curriculum Vitae (CV) or Resume

Applicants are required to submit a CV (in English) detailing their educational history, volunteering activities, involvement in youth groups, army history (if applicable), and any employment details (if applicable). This should also be uploaded to the online registration form. Please make sure your full name is at the top of your CV and that it is in professional CV format.

6. English Proficiency

The academic curriculum of the Raphael Recanati International School is taught entirely in English. Graduates of high schools in which English was not the primary language of instruction are required to pass an English Proficiency Exam. If available, the exam results should be uploaded to the online registration form. Depending on their test scores, students may be required to take English classes during their first year of studies.

There are four different English levels:

- Exemption - Students are exempt from any further English proficiency requirements.
- Advanced II - Students are required to take and pass one English proficiency course during their first year at Reichman University.
- Advanced I+II - Students are required to take and pass two English proficiency courses during their first year at Reichman University.
- English Mechina (preparatory course) - Students are required to take and pass the Reichman University English preparatory summer course prior to the start of the academic year, as well as two English proficiency courses during their first year of studies.

The RRIS at Reichman University accepts the following English proficiency exams:

- a. TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language): www.toefl.org
- b. IELTS (International English Language Testing System): www.ielts.org
- c. Cambridge English Assessment (CAE or CPE): www.cambridgeenglish.org
- d. AMIRAM: <https://www.nite.org.il/other-tests/amirnet/?lang=en>

7. Standardized Tests

For the 2025-26 year, Reichman University will be test-optional for those who graduate from high schools in the U.S. or Israel (normally required to submit SAT, ACT, or Psychometric exam scores). Where it is possible to test, do so, as it gives the RRIS Admissions Office an added quantitative ability to assess an applicant's math level. However, candidates will not be penalized for skipping the testing. Anyone who has completed at least one year of university-level studies with distinction is not required to submit a standardized test. Please make sure to check with the admissions office before applying, regarding your testing decision and status.

SAT <http://www.collegeboard.com>

The Reichman University SAT code is 4267

ACT <http://www.act.org>

The Reichman University ACT code is 5385

8. Transfer Students

In order to receive credits or exemptions for courses taken at another accredited academic institution, students must submit a detailed syllabus in English for each course for which they are requesting credit and/or an exemption. Applicants can only submit credits for approval once they have been accepted and have confirmed their place in the class to which they have applied, by paying the $1,000 USD confirmation fee. Reichman University is not obligated to grant credit for courses taken at other academic institutions. In order to be eligible for a degree from Reichman University, students must earn at least 60% of their credits at Reichman University and must be enrolled at Reichman University for a minimum of two years.

Reichman University will only consider awarding credit for courses taken within five years of a student's request.

9. Deadline

All forms and documents must be submitted to the Raphael Recanati International School Admissions Office by July 15, 2025. Applications will not be reviewed or considered until all required documents are submitted. Applications submitted after this date will be reviewed based on availability, and admission will be subject to compliance with the admissions requirements, as well as the approval of the Admissions Committee. Applicants who apply after July 15, 2025 may also be placed on a waiting list.

10. Admissions Decisions

Admissions decisions are based on a combination of academic and personal criteria: high school grades; standardized test scores (if applicable); letters of recommendation; curriculum vitae (resume); and a personal essay.

The RRIS has a rolling admissions process, and applicants should receive a response within two weeks of the date they submitted all required application materials.
