

Study Abroad and Exchanges English Language Entry Requirements 2024-25 for International Partner Countries

Australia

- All Australian nationals currently studying with one of our Australian exchange partners do not have to submit an English language proficiency document whether they are applying to us for a full year or one semester placement.
- All non-native English-speaking nationals currently studying with one of our Australian exchange partners and applying for a one semester placement do not have to submit an English language proficiency document.
- All non-native English-speaking nationals currently studying with one of our Australian exchange partners and applying for a full year placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

Argentina

- All Argentinian nationals currently studying with one of our Argentinian exchange partners and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

Brazil

- All Brazilian nationals currently studying with one of our Brazilian exchange partners and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

Canada

- All Canadian nationals currently studying with one of our Canadian exchange partners outside of Quebec do not have to submit an English language proficiency document whether they are applying to us for a full year or one semester placement.

- All Canadian nationals currently studying with one of our Canadian exchange partners in Quebec must submit a copy of their official High School certificate whether they are applying to us for a full year or one semester placement.
- All non-native English-speaking nationals currently studying with one of our Canadian exchange partners and who studied at a High School in Canada must submit a copy of their official High School certificate if they are applying to us for a full year or one semester placement.
- All non-native English-speaking nationals currently studying with one of our Canadian exchange partners and who did not study at a High School in Canada and are applying for a full year, or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

Chile

- All Chilean nationals currently studying with one of our Chilean exchange partners and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

China (partner universities outside of Hong Kong)

- All Chinese nationals currently studying with one of our Chinese exchange partners (outside of Hong Kong) and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

China (partner universities in Hong Kong)

- All Chinese nationals currently studying with one of our Chinese exchange partners in Hong Kong and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here. The HKDSE (Hong Kong Diploma of Secondary Education) English is acceptable if the student has achieved the required English grade for their chosen subject, and it is no more than two years old at the start of the student's studies at UoB (not achieved before summer 2022).

Colombia

- All Colombian nationals currently studying with one of our Colombian exchange partners and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

Ecuador

- All Ecuadorian nationals currently studying with one of our Ecuadorian exchange partners and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

Ghana

- All Ghanaian nationals currently studying with our Ghanaian exchange partner and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here. The West African Senior School Certificate is acceptable if the student has achieved the required English grade for their chosen subject.

India

- All Indian nationals currently studying with one of our Indian exchange partners and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here. The India Standard XII (CBSE/CISCE/West Bengal) is acceptable if the student has achieved the required English grade for their chosen subject.

Indonesia

- All Indonesian nationals currently studying with one of our Indonesian exchange partners and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

Israel

- All Israeli nationals currently studying with one of our Israeli exchange partners and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

Japan

- All Japanese nationals currently studying with one of our Japanese exchange partners and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

South Korea

- All South Korean nationals currently studying with one of our South Korea exchange partners and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

Malaysia

- All Malaysian nationals currently studying with one of our Malaysian exchange partners and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here. The Malaysian SPM 1119 (Cambridge O Level) is acceptable if the student has achieved the required English grade for their chosen subject, and it is no more than two years old at the start of the student's studies at UoB (not achieved before summer 2022).

Mexico

- All Mexican nationals currently studying with one of our Mexican exchange partners and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

New Zealand

- All New Zealand nationals currently studying with our New Zealand exchange partner do not have to submit an English language proficiency document whether they are applying to us for a full year or one semester placement.
- All non-native English-speaking nationals currently studying with our New Zealand exchange partner and applying for a one semester placement do not have to submit an English language proficiency document.
- All non-native English-speaking nationals currently studying with our New Zealand exchange partner and applying for a full year placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

Singapore

- All Singaporean nationals currently studying with one of our Singapore exchange partners and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here. The Singaporean GCE O Level, GCE A Level and Integrated Programme Documents are all acceptable if the student has achieved the required 'English' grade for their chosen subject (General Paper is not accepted).

South Africa

- All South African nationals currently studying with our South Africa exchange partner and applying for a full year, or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here. The South African National Senior Certificate (SA NSC or IEB) is acceptable if the student has achieved the required English grade for their chosen subject.

Taiwan

- All Taiwan nationals currently studying with one of our Taiwan exchange partners and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

Thailand

- All Thai nationals currently studying with one of our Thailand exchange partners and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

Uruguay

- All Uruguayan nationals currently studying with our Uruguay exchange partner and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

United States

- All American nationals currently studying with one of our US exchange partners do not have to submit an English language proficiency document whether they are applying to us for a full year or one semester placement.
- All non-native English-speaking nationals currently studying with one of our US exchange partners and applying for a one semester placement do not have to submit an English language proficiency document.
- All non-native English-speaking nationals currently studying with one of our US exchange partners and applying for a full year placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

Vietnam

- All Vietnamese nationals currently studying with our Vietnam exchange partner and applying for a full year or one semester placement must submit an English language proficiency document due to UKVI visa requirements. The list of acceptable ELP documents and required grades/test scores per subject can be found here.

West Indies

- All West Indies nationals currently studying with one of our West Indies exchange partners do not have to submit an English language proficiency document whether they are applying to us for a full year or one semester placement.