REGISTRATION

Administrative Registration

Exchange students are chosen by their university which will then inform ISG by email. Students will apply through a link sent by ISG and documents are to be sent by email. Students must get information from their home university regarding the exchange procedures and programmes. Upon reception of their application, ISG will send a letter of admission to each exchange student; this letter is mandatory to apply for a student visa.

Academic Registration

Before leaving your university, you will prepare a Learning Agreement with the Dean of your programme in your university and will choose your classes with their consent. You will fill out an online document choosing your classes, which can be from any year but there might be a scheduling conflict. ISG will give you a school transcript when final grades have been processed (approx. 5 weeks after final exams) to validate the credits in your home university. A full academic charge for one semester is 30 ECTS. Any changes made to your learning agreement during your semester must also be validated by your home university.

ISG Student Association

The school has different student associations, the largest one being the BDE (Bureau des Elèves), who organizes parties and make sure student life remains lively at school. There is an International section of the BDE who organizes trips and events for the international students; you will most probably meet the students from this association especially at the beginning of your mobility. Then there are also sections for sport, art, humanitarian work...We encourage all exchange students to get involved in the various associations – it really is the best way to make friends and experience student life in France!

ISG Email

An ISG email will be provided to each student following the model name.surname@isg.fr (elodie.gray@isg.fr). The email address will be used for all ISG communication during the length of your studies.

Please follow this link to connect to your ISG emails: login/microsoftonline.com/fr

To make sure you receive all important information and communication, we suggest making a transfer to your own personal email. Once you are connected:

Click on "Options" on the top right

To the right, click on "transférer votre courrier électronique"

Write your own personal email in "transférer votre courrier électronique"

Click on "Démarrer le transfert"

If you encounter any problems, please contact: sivline.te@isg.fr

Student card

When you are fully registered, ISG will issue a student card for the academic year. You will have to come pick it up at the front desk of the school. The card is very important for you as in France you can benefit from many discounts when showing proof of being a student. This is usually called “tarif réduit étudiant” and it exists for the movies, in many museums and exhibitions. You will be given one student ID so be careful not to lose it!!

With your ISG student card, you can have low-cost meals from the Dauphine University food services (CROUS).

Health Insurance

Insurance for Non-European Students

Students coming from non-European countries and studying in France for over 3 months no longer have to subscribe to the French health insurance policy under the condition that they have a private health insurance from their home country that will cover them during their entire stay in France.

Insurance for European Students

Students from the European Union must arrive in Paris with a "European Health Insurance Card" (former E111/128).

This card insures minimal coverage during their stay in France. It is strongly recommended to subscribe to an additional coverage.

Visa

If you are a native of an EEA State (28 EU Member States + Switzerland, Norway and Liechtenstein), no entry visa is required. You need a valid passport/ID card for the duration of your stay in France.

Non-European students

You are required to obtain a student visa before your arrival in France. You must request the visa form at the French consular services in your country of residence at least 3 months before your departure, you need a valid passport and apply for a visa "valant titre de séjour" (VLS-TS) OR a "Short-stay Visa" if staying less than 90 days.

The documents required for the visa application vary depending on your country of origin, for more information please contact the nearest French consulate in your country of residence.

The main documents required for the Visa application will be:

Passport: validation at least 6 months after you leave France

Letter of admission: sent by ISG

Proof of sufficient income to live in France during your exchange: minimum monthly income of 615€. In case you possess a scholarship, a certificate of the amount and the duration will be asked.

To check if you need a visa: <http://www.diplomatie.gouv.fr>

Attention:

Please note that with a tourist visa you cannot study in France and it is impossible to change this in to a student visa! It is also impossible to extend a visa when you are in France, consequently, you will have to return to home country and apply for another visa.

OFII

Students coming from outside the EU must obtain a long term visa, and will not need to get a residency permit. Instead of the residency permit, some students will need to get a stamp from the OFII (French Office for Immigration and Integration) in the weeks following their arrival in France. The procedure will be sent to you by the French Embassy officials in your country of residence, they will provide you with a form that you will need to fill out and send to the OFII office upon arrival in Paris, along with the following documents:

- Form given by the consulate bearing the stamp of the consulate + students signature
- Copy of the passport
- Copy of the visa
- Copy of the page of the passport that will be stamped by immigration upon arrival in Europe

Students will then receive a notification to attend a medical visit, students are strongly advised to keep the date as it is difficult to rearrange. Students will need to bring the following documents to the visit:

- Passport
- Proof of residence (electricity bill, rental contract, certificate from residence)
- ID Photo
- Printout of the 58 euros stamp that will be bought on the OFII Website, information about this will be send with the medical notification.

Housing

Finding a place to stay in Paris can sometimes be quite difficult so we strongly recommend that you start looking before you leave your country. Housing will cost you between 800 and 1200 Euro/month for a student (first months are more expensive because of agency fees, deposits...) and home insurance is mandatory (around 100€ a year).

ISG does not have on or off campus housing however we work with a housing platform where you can find rentals, flat shares and homestay offers.

More information on the following link: <http://logement.isg.fr>

You will also find a list of temporary housing at the end of this guide.

The average monthly budget in Paris would be around 1200€. Fortunately, the student status gives right to many discounts in transportation, libraries, sports, cinemas, museums, university cafeterias etc.

Here is list of prices to give you a general idea of what the living cost in Paris are.

Average monthly budget

Food	200€
Transportation	50€ - 75€
Material for school	45€
Leisure	100€
Various	100€

Housing subsidy

ARRIVING IN PARIS

Getting to Paris

You will most certainly arrive in one of the two main Paris airports: Roissy Charles de Gaulle or Orly. In order to get information about the airports and how to reach the city, please go to the following website: Aéroports de Paris

If you have heavy luggage with you, we recommend you take a cab or a bus because the RER and metro can sometimes be difficult with big suitcases.

If you want to come by RER, you'll find the itinerary here.

If you want to come by taxi, it will cost around 50 to 55€ to Paris from Charles de Gaulle and 35 to 40€ from Orly.

Transportation in Paris (More information www.ratp.fr)

Metro

The "Métro" in Paris has been in existence since 1898, and although it is one of the oldest subway systems, you will find that it is an efficient way of transport. The system has 16 metro lines that reaches 302 metro stations. Trains run between 5:30am and 0:30pm during the week and up to 1:30am on Fridays and Saturdays. You will be able to get a free map of the metro at any station.

Tickets can be purchased at the booths where you can choose to buy a single trip (un ticket), a booklet of 10 tickets (un carnet) or a monthly and year pass (Carte Navigo or Imagine R). The annual or monthly pass are the cheapest options if you use the transportation system on a regular basis, this pass can be used in the metro, but also RER, buses and trams.

Ticket	Price	Conditions
Single Ticket	2€	Metro, bus, certain RER, can be used once
Booklet 10 tickets	14.90€	Metro, bus, certain RER, each ticket can be used once
Navigo year	75.20€/month for 12 months	Metro, bus, RER, unlimited number of trips
Navigo month	75.20€/month	Metro, bus, RER, unlimited number of trips
Navigo week	22.80€/week	Metro, bus, RER, unlimited number of trips
Imagine R	342€/year	Students under 26 years, possible to request in September, October, November, December and January. Metro, bus, RER, unlimited number of trips

Please note that should you purchase any of the above tickets, make sure that you carry it with you at all times even after you have entered the train since you may be asked to present it once you exit from the train. If you get caught without possessing a ticket, you will have to pay a fine.

RER

The RER (Réseau Express Régional) is a high speed subway system which runs from the city to the suburbs. There are five lines (A, B, C, D, E) which connect to the metro lines. The key junction stations for the RER are Châtelet/Les Halles, Nation, Etoile and Auber. Be careful not to confuse Charles de Gaulle – Etoile (where the Arc de Triomphe is located) with Charles de Gaulle - Roissy (the main airport of Paris).

When you use the RER, you will note that there are fixed signs over the platforms indicating the destinations, times and names of the trains, the sign will also indicate whether the train is short (train court) or long (train long), this is important when it arrives, if it is a short train, you might be 100 meters behind.

A word of caution: in the places outside of Paris, stations in the evenings are normally deserted and can be unsafe for a single traveler.

Bus

Should you decide to use the bus in Paris, it is advisable to consult the various bus routes inside the metro, at bus stops or on your transport map.

Bank Account

We recommend students to open a bank account in France, especially for those staying more than a semester, you will also need a bank account to receive the housing subsidy.

You can open your account in any bank, but you will find below 2 banks close to ISG:

- Société Générale, 172 avenue Victor Hugo
- BNP Paribas, 39 avenue Victor Hugo

Telephones

You may want to get a sim card when you arrive in Paris in order to make local calls and connect to the internet. You can go into any telephone shop and buy a card for around 10€ and pay as you go, you just need to make sure that your phone is not blocked by your home operator.
