Universidad
Camilo José Cela

Who we are?

- We are a young university (16 years) with a committed tradition in innovation; it is part of our mind-set and applies to all dimensions of education.
- We are a learning expert organization.
- We understand excellence as a way to understand personal and institutional excellence
- We are independent from any economic or religious group. We are not state-funded
- We are able to design adaptive personal learning models
- Currently 10% of our student body is international (46% from the European Union and 54% from elsewhere).
- We have more than 120 agreements in place to foster internationalization and encourage our students to have an international experience in more than 37 countries.
- We teach with a multi-dimensional approach helping students to develop multiple skills and knowledge by mixing critical thinking, entrepreneurship, languages, social commitment, technology and digital skills
- UCJC'S DNA: The Three "I's": Interdisciplinary learning, Innovation, Internationalization

OUR CAMPUS
