

Public opinion poll among Arab citizens in Israel, May 2023: Main findings

Dr. Arik Rudnitzky

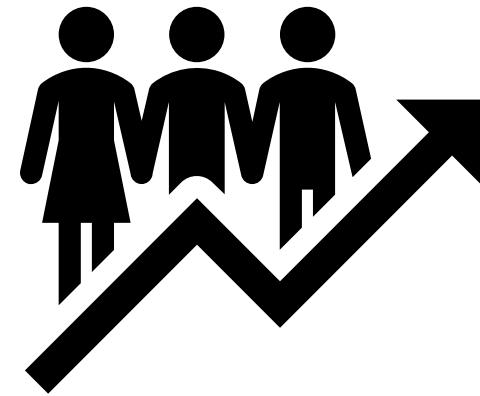

About the survey

Data collection during May 9-15, 2023

Among Israeli Arab citizens (including mixed cities)

Sample size: 502 respondents (age 18+)

Sample error: ± 4.4 percent

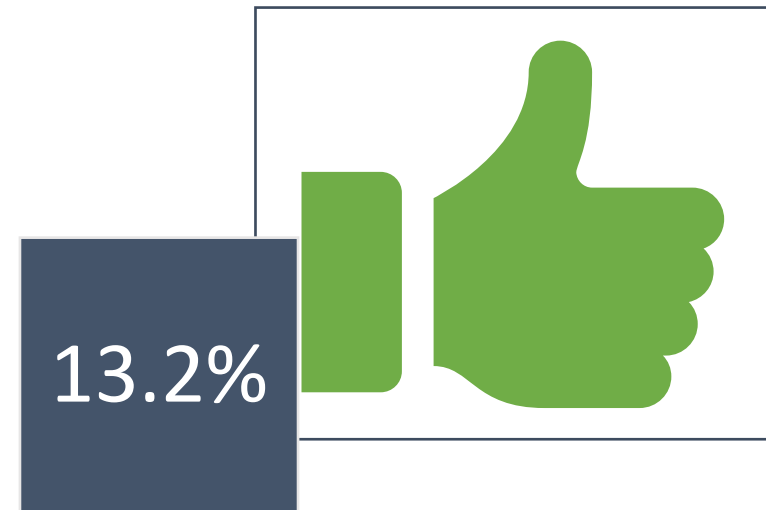

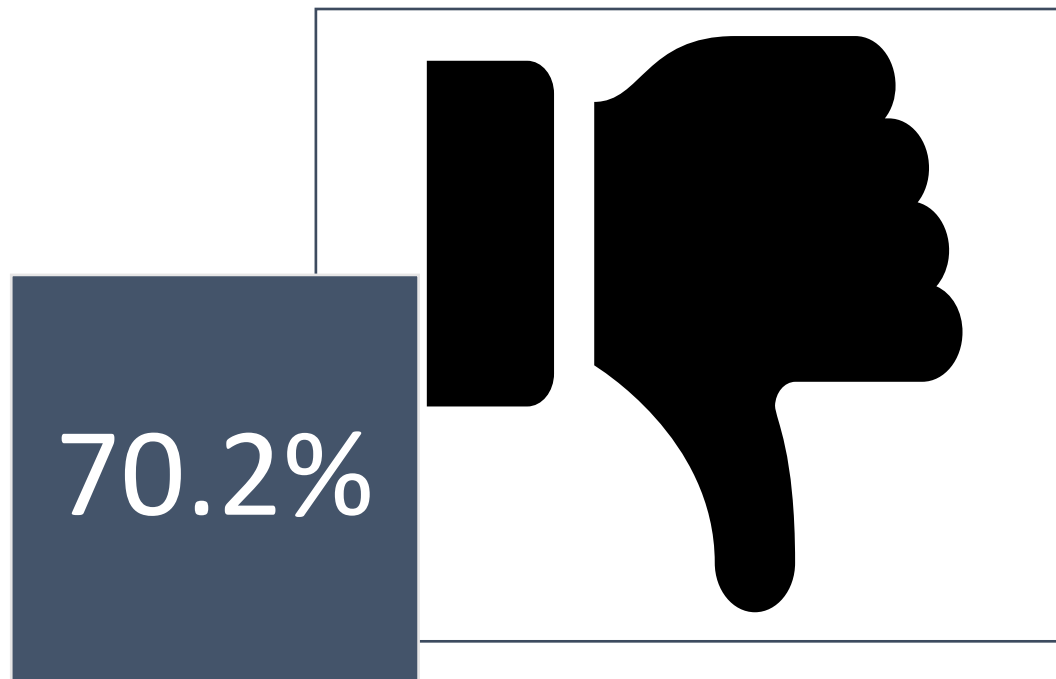

Opinions among Arab citizens on the wave of protests in Israel

75.9% Support the protests

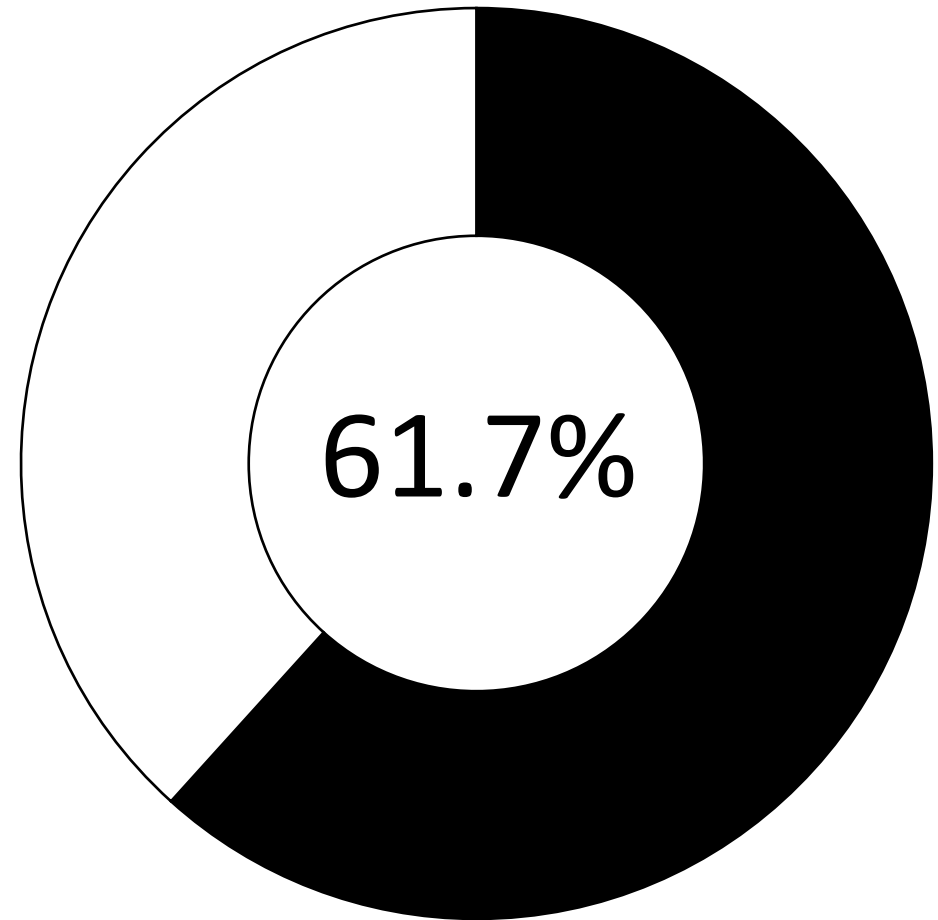

47.9% Believe that this issue concerns the Arab public

59.7% Think that Arab citizens should take a more active role in the protests

Will Arab citizens accept a constitution based on Israel's Declaration of Independence?

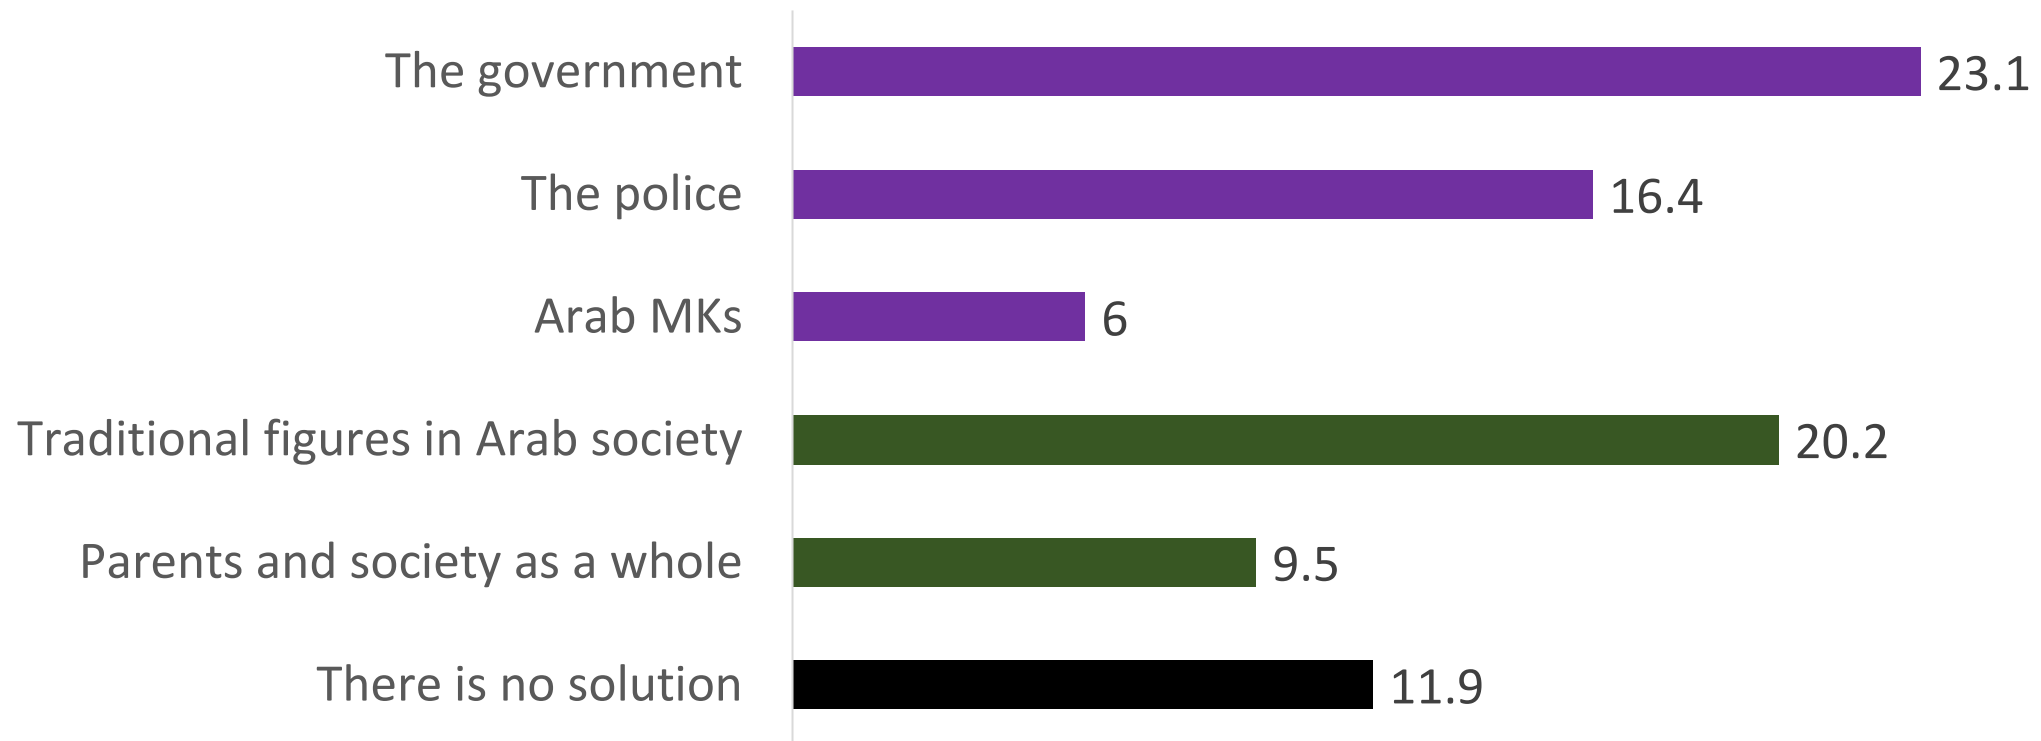

Has the recent violence in Arab society reduced your sense of individual security and that of your family?

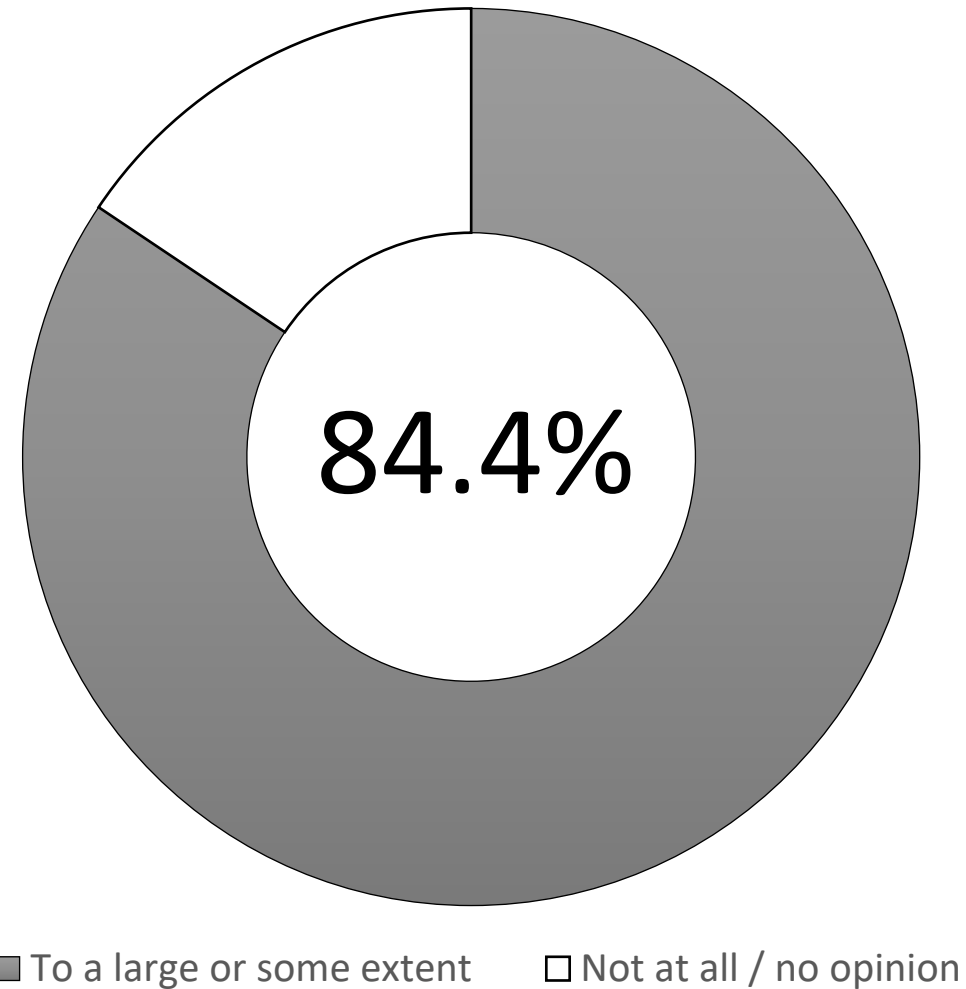

■ To a large or great extent □ To some extent or not at all

Who is able to deal with the problem of violence and crime in Arab society?

Do you fear that the events of May 2021 will reoccur in the near future?

Should an Arab party join the government coalition in the future?

Yes 63.7%	46.6% - Yes, they should join any coalition.
	16.7% - Yes, but only a Center-Left coalition.
No 27.3%	13.8% - No, but an Arab party should support the coalition from the outside in return for tangible benefits to Arab society.
	13.5% - No, under any circumstances.

Was Ra'am's experience in the past government successful?

